

MCDANIEL METALS

McDaniel Metals has been manufacturing innovative, high performance HVAC products since 1982. Started by Bill McDaniel, the company has grown to occupying more than 80,000 square feet of manufacturing and warehouse space in Houston, Texas. We've earned a reputation for making and delivering quality products at competitive prices. It has helped us become the only sheet metal company in the nation that's a recognized provider of accessories to all major manufacturers' parts programs.
