Description

In critical environments where protecting both the product and the worker are of equal and paramount importance, CleaN-DEX® is the clean room glove of choice. This clean room product delivers low ESD and particulate counts, protecting high-end semi-conductors and perishable food-stuffs alike. CleaN-DEX®'s "clean" white color is ideal for clean room, lab and food processing environments where exacting standards of industrial hygiene are required. With its textured fingertips, CleaN-DEX® also delivers enhanced grip and tactile discrimination. Its 12" length and beaded cuff design ensure compatibility with clean room garments and apparel. If your applications call for the Best in critical environment hand protection, don't settle for anything less than CleaN-DEX®.
