

TECTITE™
work smart

SIZE... does matter

So does breadth of line

TECTITE™ Push Fittings from Elkhart Products Corporation gives you both

As part of the family of companies that invented the push fitting over 15 years ago, Elkhart Products Corporation is living up to its' tradition of innovation. Our line extension now gives you more fittings for more applications – in sizes from ¼ to 2".

No other push fitting manufacturer offers both the size and breadth of the TECTITE™ line of push fittings.
