WHAT MAKES A BUCKET BOSS RIG?

1. FABRIC

600 POLY RIPSTOP FABRIC

INDUSTRY STANDARD
TEAR STRENGTH

1680 HEAVY DUTY POLY

4X
TEAR STRENGTH

CORDURA[®]
BALLISTIC NYLON

10X
TEAR STRENGTH

TEAR STRENGTH:

Fabric strength is measured by:

- 1) Denier: the thickness of the yarn in the fabric.
- 2) Type (polyester or nylon-nylon being much stronger):
 - 600 denier poly: most commonly used fabric, provides great value.
 - 1680 denier poly: heavy-duty fabric, a minimum for professionals.
 - Ballistic Cordura nylon: toughest fabric on the planet for work gear.

2. CONSTRUCTION

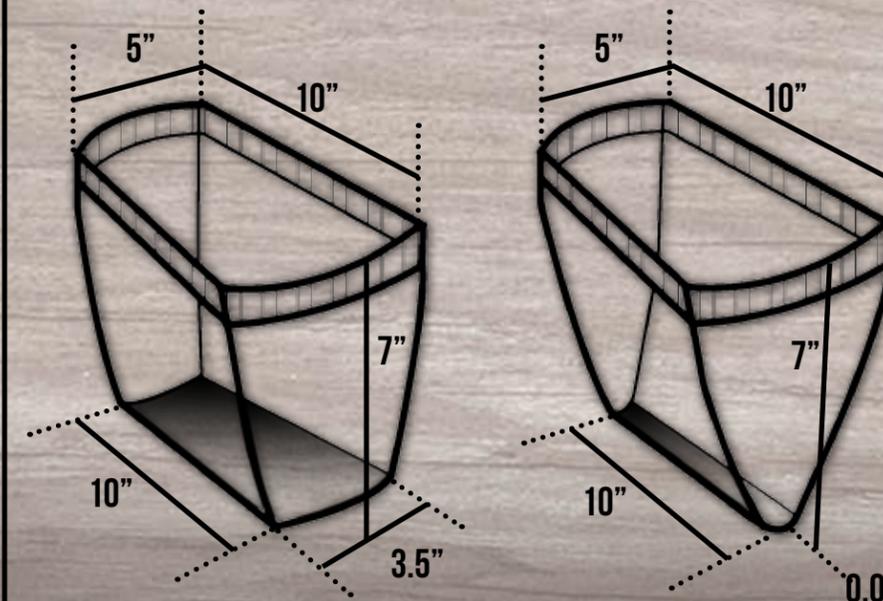

SINGLE BODY CONSTRUCTION VS RIVETED PIECES

It's no secret that the more joints you have on a piece of fabric, the more places it can tear. That's why we use Single Body Construction on our pouches to make them as strong as they can be.

3. CAPACITY

BARREL BOTTOM VS V-BOTTOM POUCHES

Our signature Barrel Bottom pouches allow over 60% more space than the traditional v-bottom pouches of other rigs.
